

CONTENTS

PART I

1. Two Models of Teaching and Learning 9
2. What is the Socratic Method of Teaching and Learning? 14
3. Techniques of Active and Close Reading: Lesson Plan 1 17
4. Three Kinds of Questions: Lesson Plan 2 26
5. Qualities of Good Discussion Questions: Lesson Plan 3 30
6. Basic Interpretive Questions: Lesson Plan 4 33
7. Spontaneous Follow Up Questions. Lesson Plan 5 40
8. Preparing Students for Discussion: Lesson Plan 6 48

PART II

9. Why do we write? Lesson Plan 7 56
10. Vocabulary of Tone: Lesson Plan 8 67
11. Four Sentence Writing Skills: Lesson Plan 9 75
12. Sentence Combination Exercises: Lesson Plan 10 84
13. Strunk and White, The Elements of Style: Lesson Plan 11 103
14. Media Rhetoric and Rhetorical Fallacies: Lesson Plan 12 113

PART III

15. Strategies of Rhetoric: Lesson Plan 13 131
  16. Definition-illustration: Scrapbook Project: Lesson 14 146
  17. Personal experience: College Application Essay: Lesson Plan 15 153
  18. Cause-effect: "Finding Forrester" (DVD): Lesson Plan 16 165
  19. Persuasion: The death penalty should [not] be abolished: Lesson 17 175
  20. Comparison-contrast: William Faulkner: Lesson Plans 18-20 201
  21. Classification-illustration: Syndicated Columnists: Lesson Plan 21 238
  22. Narrative: John Updike and Robert Frost: Lesson Plans 22 & 23 265
- Afterword: "What is imperative about rhetoric?" 306
- References 307